

Nottingham Refugee Week

15 — 22 June 2019

You, me and those who came before

#Generations

A festival of music, theatre, dance, film, literature, art and food celebrating the contribution of refugees to our city.

www.nottinghamrefugeeweek.org

Women T

Refugee Week in Nottingham has undoubtedly become a much anticipated yearly tradition. We come together to reflect and celebrate the resilience and valuable contributions that refugees and asylum seekers bring to our city.

In 2019 our programme will aim to raise awareness and promote better understanding of why people seek sanctuary. Refugee Week events include: art and culture, music and film, shared food and friendship.

We invite you to attend any of our events and look forward to welcoming you in solidarity and support for refugees.

You, Me and Those who came before

We owe a debt of gratitude to those who came before

For their heroism through struggles

For their pain, turned into gain

For their sadness, turned into gladness

Our ability to withstand affliction

Forging ahead, undeterred

Echoes the resounding fortitude of those who came before us.

Salani Mutseyami

Chair of Nottingham Refugee Week

Insiders/Outsiders

An illustrated talk by
Monica Bohm-Duchen

Five Leaves Bookshop

14a Long Row, NG1 2DH

Monday 10 June

19.00–20.30

ART/TALK — This talk examines the rich contribution of refugees from Nazi-dominated Europe to the visual culture, art education and art-world structures of the United Kingdom. In every field, émigrés arriving from Europe in the 1930s – supported by a small number of like-minded individuals already resident in the UK – introduced a professionalism, internationalism and bold avant-gardism to British art.

Placeless People

Writing, rights and refugees
A talk by Lyndsey Stonebridge

Five Leaves Bookshop

14a Long Row, NG1 2DH

Wednesday 12 June

19.00–20.30

LITERATURE/TALK — Lyndsey Stonebridge gives an account of refugee history and literature, drawing on the work of Hannah Arendt, Kafka, W.H. Auden, Orwell and Simone Weil. This is the first literary history of modern statelessness that raises vital questions about sovereignty, and the future of human rights which highlights the importance of literature in understanding the challenges of today's refugee 'crisis'.

£3 on the door. All welcome.
